

PUBLIC NOTICE

RESULTS OF ELECTIONS FOR THE POSITION OF CHAIRPERSON OF THE CREE HEALTH BOARD

The following is the Result of the Elections held for the position of Chairperson of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay held on September 6, 2016.

This is in accordance with the Election By-Law of the Cree Health Board enacted on June 13, 2008, stating that one member of the Board of Directors shall be the Cree representative elected by and from the members of the Cree Nation Government. The person so elected shall be ex-officio, the Chairperson of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay for a term of four (4) years.

Candidate	Votes Received	Percentage of Valid Votes
Charles Bobbish	154	7.29%
Mabel Herodier	240	11.31%
Pauline Lameboy	388	18.37%
Bella M. Petawabano	1,178	55.78%
Clarence Snowboy	152	7.20%
Total Number of valid Votes Cast	2,112
Cancelled, rejected ballots	11

A total of two thousand, one hundred and twenty-three ballots (2,123) were cast, of which, Two Thousand, one hundred and twelve (2,112) were valid votes. Bella M. Petawabano secured One thousand, one hundred, and seventy-eight (1,178) valid votes cast representing more than Fifty-five percent (55.78%) of the valid votes cast. Therefore in accordance with the Cree Board of Health and Social Services Election By-law No. 09, respecting the Elections of a Chairperson, which specifies that a candidate must secure a majority of the valid votes to be elected, Bella M. Petawabano having secured more than Fifty-five percent (55.78%) of the votes, I hereby declare, in my capacity as Chief Returning officer, Bella M. Petawabano duly elected as Chairperson of the Cree Board of Health and Social Services of James Bay for a term of four (4) Years.

And I have signed this declaration, in Ottawa this 7th day of September, 2016.

Kenny Loon
Chief Returning Officer